Richard Katt Outstanding Educator Award

- Available to all Career and Technical Educators in Nebraska
- Criteria: innovative classroom practices, philosophy of teaching in CTE, mentoring experiences, personal and professional growth, and letters of recommendation.
- One educator is selected from each of the CTE areas and receives $1000. The overall winner receives an additional $2500.

Home Baking Association

- The Home Baking Association, found at homebaking.org, is a great resource for teaching about baking.
- The website includes a glossary, videos, recipes, a store, newsletter and blog. The Home Baking Association is also on Facebook.

Home Baking Association Educator Award

- Each year the Home Baking Association sponsors an Educator Award for those who teach baking in a classroom or community Program.
- The winning educator receives $1000 and an all-expense paid trip for two to the Home Baking Association Annual Meeting to present a summary of their award-winning project.
- March 31, 2022 is the deadline for next year's award.

2020 Home Baking Association Award Winning Project: Pastry Pizazz

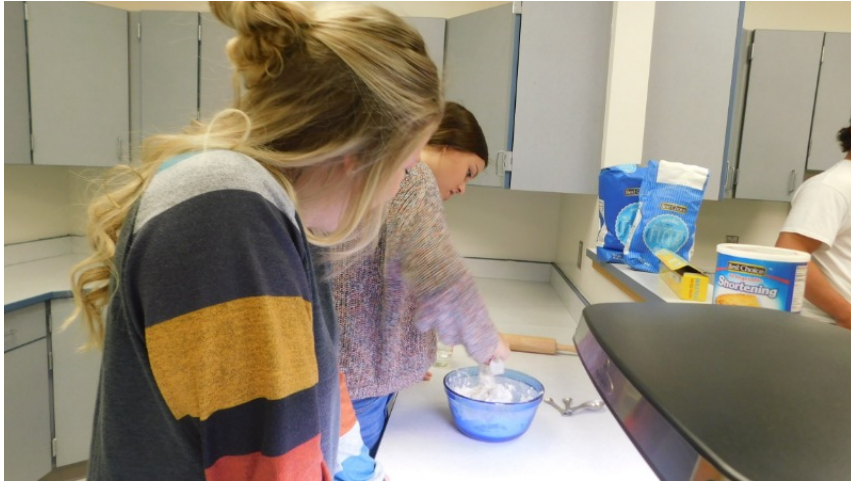

- I entered a project called Pastry Pizazz in the 2020 Home Baking Association Educator Award competition and was fortunate to be selected as the winner.
- I will travel to Santa Fe, NM in October of 2021.
